Wisconsin Wrights 2017 New Play Development Project

Release Agreement

To: The Wisconsin Wrights New Play Development Project

I am submitting my entry form, release agreement, and original stage play for consideration for the 2017 Wisconsin Wrights New Play Development Project. My original stage play, which will be referred to as "Material" in this release agreement, is entitled:

Title of work: _____

By submitting the Material to the Wisconsin Wrights Commission for entry in the 2017 Wisconsin Wrights New Play Development Project the undersigned playwright (referred to as "Playwright" or "I") agrees to and understands the following points.

1. The Playwright acknowledges that:
 - a. I created the Material and it was written by me, and that I own copyright on this Material free and clear of any other interests and persons.
 - b. I have absolute right to submit the Material for entry in this development project and to comply with this Agreement. If this Material is not copyrighted I acknowledge that I wrote and prepared this Material and have the legal right to apply for a copyright when and if I choose to do so.
2. I may submit the Material to persons, contests, producers or organizations other than Wisconsin Wrights for any reason. Also, I have kept at least one copy (original or duplicate) of all Material submitted to Wisconsin Wrights.
3. If I am one of the three top honorees I may receive a reading of my work but I understand that this is not guaranteed at this time.
4. Wisconsin Wrights may cancel the project for any reason. All entry fees will be refunded if the project is canceled and playwrights will have no further claim against the organization.
5. If more than one party signs this Agreement and the Entry Form as the submitting party, then all references to I, me, and/or my throughout both the Agreement and the Entry Form apply to each submitting party jointly.
